

AGILA SIGNS AGREEMENT WITH BIOCHIMICO TO SET UP A JOINT VENTURE COMPANY IN BRAZIL

- JV to emerge as a leading player in anesthetics and high-end injectables in Brazil
- JV to benefit from BioChimico's established credentials in Brazilian hospital market
 - Agila to be 52% partner in JV

Bangalore, India, January 20, 2011: Strides Arcolab Limited (BSE: 532531, NSE: STAR) today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary Agila Specialties has signed an agreement with BioChimico of Brazil to set up a joint venture company for the Brazilian hospital market in which BioChimico and Agila will transfer selected Brazilian IPs to the Joint Venture to market products jointly.

Strides' Brazilian facility in Campos and BioChimico's two manufacturing plants in Rio de Janeiro and Itatiaia will manufacture products on a pre-determined cost model and transfer the products to the JV for onward distribution in the Brazilian hospital market.

BioChimico is a long standing dedicated hospitals player in Brazil with a leadership position in anaesthetics, a domain in which Strides does not operate until now.

Commenting on the development, Arun Kumar, Vice Chairman and Group CEO, Strides Arcolab, stated "This JV will complement Strides' existing licensing and supply arrangements with Aspen Pharma and enable Strides to fully tap the Brazilian hospitals market opportunity".

Christoph G. Gross, CEO, BioChimico, commented "the strategic collaboration between the erstwhile competitors will unleash unique economies of scope and scale, which will ultimately translate into significant sales and profit growth opportunities".
